Fishing

" Kiwengwa Beach: long... endless... and white... blinding! Specially at low tide time when waves leave place to warm puddles, like little turquoise bath tubs, and long walking replace your swims. The best way to enjoy the beauty of the tide, which wax and wane every 6 hours, is taking a walk to the coral reef to find fishes, octopus and other bizarre creatures caught of few centimeter of water... Listen the sound of ocean that slowly comes back... Take refuge on a sand bank which get smaller and smaller and last jump on your ngalawa, local watercraft to reach the shore by sail. Eating is not a problem in Kiwengwa, from yummy buffet in the several resorts to refined dishes of boutique hotels, without missing lobster BBQ, pizza and Swahili food from the local restaurants along the beach. Ebony arts, batik, oil paintings, Masai jewels, elegant beads & leather shoes, colorful fabrics... Hundreds of stalls along the beach for funny shopping time. And again... Kite Surf, Scuba Diving, Horse riding... Kiwengwa is all this and much more!! and Beyond the rest of the Island to explore: Stone Town, Spice Tour, Safari Blue... We can help organizing any sort of excursion! "
