" Cottage Ocean view one consists of 70 square meters located between the fishing villages of Punta Mujeres and Arrieta, in the municipality of Haria, North of the island of Lanzarote, in a complex of cottages, located just 10 metres from the sea shore. The complex is retired from the tourist areas of the island and all the residents of the complex are residents, making it a very quiet place at all hours of the day. In either of the two towns, Punta women 100 metres or Arrieta 1 km., groceries, supermarkets, service station shops, and some restaurants in Lanzarote are located. In the area of Punta Mujeres is a series of natural pools of salt water. Already a little more retired are the villages of Maguez or would Saturday morning where a typical products of the land and craft market is made. More to the North has the local "

Culture

" This property can be rented which provide you with WIFI modem so that you can connect from your PC, tablet or phone from anywhere. Captivating scenery and natural works of art can be found in the north of Lanzarote thanks to the island's volcanic history and a little help from renowned artist and architect César Manrique. Fascinating attractions like Jameos del Agua and the Cueva de los Verdes are great places to visit. Don't miss out the Mirador del Río, a spectacular viewpoint – also built by Manrique – blending harmoniously with its surroundings and providing breathtaking views over La Graciosa and the other islets of the Chinijo archipelago. Along the shore of the northernmost tip, which is largely undeveloped, you will find some small, idyllic fishing villages such as Arrieta and Orzola, boasting some nice seafood restaurants, excellent stops for lunch or a cool drink. Lanzarote is a gift of natu "
