" A thousand-year-old city, Andenne has places tracing the richness of its past, including the Museum of Ceramics, the Treasury of the Collegiate or the Scladina Cave. Andenne will amaze you with her thousand facets. For those who love nature, you will find the natural site of Sclaigneaux, classified and taken up in the areas NATURA 2000, is one of the most interesting in Wallonia. It consists of a large number of ecosystems gathered over an area of more than 80 hectares. These are home to a rich and diverse fauna and flora including 10 species of orchids and many species of birds and insects remarkable in Belgium (country grill, lulu lark, black woodpecker...). For sportsmen or family walks, you can also do mountain bike, GR and RAVEL tours, nature tours, Andenne offers walkers unexpected tours. There are a few trails in the area for your walks. From the Sclaigneaux reserve to the Samson Valley, Andenne goes green. Also, if you like combat sports: Quad, circuits, sporting arrow, bugxter, others, expect you less than 10km from home! You can also visit the old pedestrian and take the time to sit on a terrace in the Old Square. In summer, take the Namourette to stroll on the Meuse. Go around the fortress walls and enjoy the stunning views "
