- Ideal for couples, family
- View : panoramic, not overlooked, sea/ocean, mountain, country side, fantastic sunset
- Setting : quiet, rural
- Exposure : South

" Home comfort, decorated with antique furniture of Madeiran style manufactured with typical wood of the Laurisilva forest, located between the mountains and the sea, in a quiet area situated 500 m above sea level, with a balcony overlooking the Atlantic, where you can enjoy a spectacular sunset at the end of the day- This house was recovered from a typical building called ' Palheiro '. The house is composed of two parts: an old stone house, and a second more recent construction, built around the old stone house. Thus, parts of the external walls of the House of stone are the inner walls of the new building. The house has one bedroom with a large bed and a private toilet. It has a complete bathroom with shower. The living room has a fireplace and open kitchen. The house is ready to receive people with physical disabilities. The garden has free private parking for the car. "
