Surroundings & location

" The Bormio area : Bormio in winter is a very well known ski resort because it is easily reached from Lombardy (Milan and Bergamo) and the roads are always accessible. With it's 24 ski lifts reaching as high as 3020 m (2 black runs, 8 red runs and 8 blue runs) you will find something for all levels of skiers and snowboarding. There is also 12km of groomed cross-country trails in the area. A great attraction both in the winter and summer, are the thermal baths. At just 3km outside the village on the mountain road towards Stelvio pass, these baths date back to pre-roman times and were used all through the middle ages. The spas are very well equipped with sauna's, Turkish and/or mud baths, and indoor and outdoor hot water pools with water temperatures ranging from 35 to 60° C. In Bormio city, there is modern building with thermal baths and treatments for skin and wellness. Bormio, for the most part, is a very quiet village. "
