" The studio is the stern Castle, it means the cabin where lived the sailors from a barge Freyssinet. At the top level, in the wheelhouse (the steering position), lies the kitchenette; at the intermediate level is a lounge-berth, and at the lower level are the bunk room and bathroom (bathtub shoe). The intermediate and lower levels are separated by a railing. The lounge, you can admire the sunsets, and the patio above the lounge, enjoy again, away from the reeds, the environment. A barbecue is at your disposal as well as (deposit required) a canoe and bikes. A heat pump you guarantee the best heating throughout the year and you will never feel moisture on the boat. The ship is permanently inhabited by its owner who will welcome you as in a guest room, although it is for a vacation rental. "

Surroundings & location

City

Culture

" The environment is very green (although the boat is in urban areas), and shops (including an Auchan store) are nearby. Swans and geese often come to greet us, and instead of seeing cars pass in front of your windows, you will see the rowers. You can walk to Saint-Cloud and the Ile Saint Germain parks and beautiful walks along the Seine. You can reach very easily, by public transport (from Les Moulineaux station which is 200 metres away), and velib, autolib attractions Parisians, as well as the Château de Versailles. If you come by car, you will always find the place before the boat, for your car. A pony club, the heliport of Paris, and an Aquaboulevard are also nearby. "
