Culture

" Because of its colorful customs and small town atmosphere, visitors often choose to lodge in Loiza. Surrounded by sugar cane plantations, fruit orchards, and coconut groves, it's away from the bustling and noisy city, yet only minutes shopping malls (Beltz Outlets); 5-15 minutes from renowned golf courses in Rio Grande; 10-15 miles from casinos; Camarero Racetrack; and world famous tourist attractions such as El Yunque Rain Forest and its waterfalls. In many ways, Loiza is still the sleepy fishing village of long ago. There you'll experience the old Caribbean. While in the area, be sure to visit the Samuel Lind Art Studio, where you'll see oil paintings, sculptures, and serigraphs created by local artists. Local crafts like the coconut masks used in festivals and the traditional bomba drums can be purchased at Ayala Family Artisan Center, one minute from the condo. "
