Surroundings & location

" Bray-Dunes is a seaside resort in full expansion. You will discover a beautiful wide sandy beach, a beautiful promenade: terraces, expansive and protected dunes areas on the outskirts of the pleasant and welcoming Center. Nature lovers can explore the untouched dune area The West corner, a nature reserve of 565 hectares between Bray-Dunes and De Panne or La Dune Marchand, a protected area that connects the village with Dunkirk. Adjacent to this area is the pristine nature reserve ' La Dune du Perroquet ' ; an ideal starting point for long beach walks, trekking through the dunes or a trip to the nearby Dunkirk. Those who love undisturbed rest, enjoy a day at sea and musing on the beach will revel in the become rare authenticity of this seaside resort. Striking is the large number of relics from the second world war, mainly bunkers, found on the beach between De Panne and Bray-Dunes. Tasty restaurants provide culinary delight and fun moments as a couple, family or friends. In addition, there is a brand new event Hall built, where there are numerous performances. In addition, there is an indoor swimming pool, a cinema, a wonderful sailing club, mini golf, tennis ... Throughout the year, there are also many activities organized by the municipality. "
