Surroundings & location

" The village Wiesa, in the Valley of the river Zschopau, is located approximately 3 km from Thermalbad Wiesenbad and Annaberg - Buchholz was founded in 1389. Through the upcoming silver mining in the 15th century it had an enormous population growth and the well known computing master Adam Ries also came here. The Church St. Trinity, the first and only stylish Church of the Ore mountains in the art nouveau style, was built in the years 1903/04 and still determines the image of the town today. Wiesa has a population of about 1300 people and maintained the tradition of handmade, the mountain brotherhood and the riding association and others. The charming surrounding of area offers hiking attractions. Because the Zschopau passes directly to our property, our pension is also for anglers an interesting accommodation. "
